

Seasonal Differences between the USA and Canada

Thanks to all of you who sent us some great jokes about where you are from. Keep posted as we run local theme jokes throughout the year. Here's one enlightening us on all the differences between the USA and Canada.

60 degrees above – Floridians wear coats, gloves, and wooly hats.
Canadian people sunbathe.

50 degrees above - New Yorkers try to turn on the heat.
Canadian people plant gardens.

40 degrees above - Italian cars won't start.
Canadian people drive with the windows down.

32 degrees above - Distilled water freezes.
Lake Ontario's water gets thicker.

20 degrees above - Californians shiver uncontrollably.
Canadian people have the last cookout before it gets cold.

15 degrees above - New York landlords finally turn up the heat.
Canadian people throw on a sweatshirt.

0 degrees - Texans fly away to Mexico.
Canadian people lick the flagpole and throw on a light jacket over the sweatshirt.

20 degrees below - People in Miami cease to exist.
Canadian people get out their winter coats.

40 degrees below - Hollywood disintegrates.
Canada's Girl Scouts begin selling cookies door to door.

50 degrees below - Santa Claus abandons the North Pole.
Canadian people get frustrated when they can't thaw the keg.

60 degrees below - Microbiological life survives only on dairy products.
Canadian cows complain of farmers with cold hands.

460 degrees below - All atomic motion stops.
Canadian people start saying... "Cold 'nuff for ya?"

500 degrees below - Hell freezes over.
Toronto Maple Leafs win the Stanley Cup.